Federal census from 1790 to 1930. It has head-of-household indexes to censuses from 1790 to 1820, 1860 and 1870 and 1890 (fragments) through 1920. The 1930 census covers index only Connecticut, Delaware, Maryland, Texas and Virginia. For the 1830 through 1850, 1880 and remaining 1930 census schedules, it has just the record images. Head of household indexes don't always cover just one person per residence. Anyone with a different last name – such as a servant or live-in mother-in-law also may be indexed. Remember, you'll get no results from censuses that are not indexed
